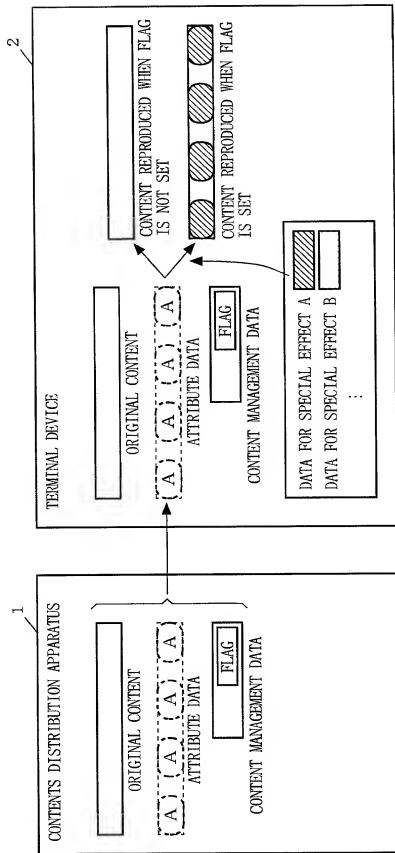

FIG. 4

A screenshot of a graphical user interface (GUI) window. The window has a title bar with a standard window control icon on the left and a dropdown menu and a maximize button on the right. The main area contains four rows of labels and input fields:

- Row 1: "CONTENT NAME" followed by a text box containing "sample.avi".
- Row 2: "REPRODUCTION CONDITIONS" followed by a button labeled "CONDITIONAL REPRODUCTION".
- Row 3: "SPECIAL EFFECTS FLAG" followed by a text box containing "1".
- Row 4: "BILLING CONDITIONS" followed by a text box containing "¥200".

Reference numerals 41, 42, 43, and 44 point to the "sample.avi", "CONDITIONAL REPRODUCTION", "1", and "¥200" respectively.
